Celebrity Match to include local soccer legends

Coetzenberg Stadium, Stellenbosch provides the battlefield for soccer legends of South Africa to show off their soccer talent as they face each other on 23 May 2010, just 20 days before the kick off of the FIFA 2010 Soccer World Cup.

- Local Cape Town talent goes head to head with players from around the country at 3pm. These South African soccer legends have earned the respect of local and international fans and are sure to stage a wonderful spectacle.

Besides the highlight of the Celebrity Match, there will be 2 other matches played earlier in the day which will include players from Youth Unlimited programmes such as Siyaphambili and Ikamva Ladies Football Club.

All proceeds go towards Youth Unlimited (YU), an NGO based in Cape Town who focuses on youth at risk and many of the youth within the various projects will be at the event to enjoy a close encounter with the celebrities.

YU began in 2001 and aims to provide financial, technical and advisory support to partner NGO's, coordination of solidarity, development of youth initiatives and promotion of advocacy and lobbying. Activities include lifeskills and leadership, street work, vocational skills training, residential re-integration programmes, sports and recreation, educational centre for street youth,
